

CHRIST KING HR. SEC. SCHOOL, KOHIMA
CLASS-5
SUBJECT: ENGLISH-1, FIRST TERM

---

Chapter -4
Leisure

I. Answer the following Questions:

1. According to the poet what are some of the simple things that we miss in our daily life?
According to the poet some of the things we miss in our daily life are skies at night, dancing skill of the beautiful maiden and activities of animals.
2. Why are we not able to enjoy the simple pleasure of life?
We are not able to enjoy the simple pleasure of life because we have no time to relax and enjoy.
3. What is the meaning of, “A poor life this if, full of care”. We have no time to stand and stare.
In this stanza, the poet wants to say that man has become so busy that he does not have spare time for him to stand and watch anything which would give him pleasure and peace of mind.
4. Which things do disturbance in watching the beauty of the nature?
The tight schedule of our lifestyle where we are giving much importance in taking full care of life is the disturbance in watching the beauty of the nature.
5. What message does the poet gives through his poem?
Through this poem the poet gives us the message that how busy we are with our life, we should relax under the sky to watch the nature which will make us feel relaxed. We should spare time for our relaxation too.

1. Tick the correct answer:

1. Man has become so busy that there is no time to
(c) Relax and enjoy the simple things in life.
2. Even in broad daylight the steams are
(a) Full of stars like skies at night.
3. Man has no time to admire the
(b) Dancing skill of a beautiful maiden
4. The poem suggest that man’s life has become too busy
(a) In pursuit of time
6. The poet says that life must be enjoyed
(b) Under a starry sky.

II. Write whether the sentences are declarative, interrogative or exclamatory.

1. I must finish my homework- Declarative
2. Are you going to study?- interrogative
3. She decided to finally express her wish- Declarative
4. Oh! It is indeed a surprise- Exclamatory
5. Delhi is the capital of India- declarative
6. Alas! My rabbit has died- Exclamatory
7. May I have a glass of water?- Interrogative
8. John, can you to the market?- Interrogative
9. Bravo! You have done very well- Exclamatory
10. Get ready for school- Declarative

King Grisly - Beard

I. Answer the following short answer type questions:

1. What was the princess like?
The princess was very beautiful but very proud, haughty and conceited.
2. How were the suitors seated?
The suitors were seated in a row, ranked according to their rank- kings, princes, dukes, earls, counts, barons and knights.
3. What did the king vow to do?
The king vowed that either willingly or unwillingly the princess should marry the man that comes to the door.
4. Who came by the castle two days later?
Two days later, a travelling fiddler came by the castle.
5. Where did the fiddler finally take her?
The fiddler finally took her to a small cottage which was their house.
6. Why did the princess not want to sell pots and pans in the market?
The princess did not want to sell pots and pans in the market because she was a princess, she felt that if any of her father's court would see her selling in the market they would laugh at her.
7. Who did the fiddler turn out to be?
The fiddler turned out to be a king named Grisly- Beard.
8. What did the princess learn?
The princess learnt wisdom and gave up her silly pride.

II. Answer the following long answer type questions:

1. Who are the main characters in this story?
The main characters in this story are the great king of the east, his daughter the princess, the fiddler and king Grisly- Beard.
2. "That is no business of mine, why should you wish for another husband. Am I not good enough for you?" What made the fiddler say this to the princess?
Every time the princess saw something like the wood, fine green meadows, great city which belonged to King Grisly- Beard. The princess would say why I didn't marry Grisly- beard. Hearing these words at last the fiddler angrily says this to the princess.
3. What are the various kinds of works that the princess was made to do?
Making fires, cooking, cleaning the house, weaving baskets, spinning threads and selling pots and pans in the market.
4. What incident finally made the princess grieve bitterly for her folly?
The princess came to know that the fiddler who lived with her as her husband was no other than king Grisly. He behaved as a fiddler and made her tolerate all the problems, just to teach her a lesson.
5. Whose wedding was being organized? Who had attended the wedding?
King Grisly- Beard and the princess wedding was organized. The princess father and his whole court attended the wedding.

Tick the word that should be used for making the correct sentences:

1. Her pie is as tasty as – mine
2. I know that the purse was – mine
3. He knows- my name.
4. My- mom wears these pretty
5. I- had to hurry before it started raining.
6. William is special friend of –mine
7. Siddharth and Raju are very greedy. They came to –my house and took everything that was – mine.
8. I – must have a bicycle said Harry.
9. Can you help- me?
10. My uncle said that he would buy – me a wristwatch.

Match the definitions with the correct part of speech:

1. Name of a person, place or thing—Noun
2. Word used instead of a noun—pronoun.
3. Word used to connect sentence—conjunction.
4. Word expressing a relation of meaning between a noun or pronoun and some other word—preposition.
5. Word used to modify meaning of a verb or an adjective—adverb.
6. Word that expresses action—verb.
7. Word which express emotion—interjection.
8. Word that adds something to the meaning of a noun—adjective.

Lesson- 6

Medusa and Athena

Define the following professions:

1. Miller—a person who owns or works in mill for making flour.
2. Cobbler—a person who repairs shoes.
3. Blacksmith—a person who makes and repairs things, made of iron.
4. Sculptor—a person who makes sculptures.
5. Artist—a person who creates work of art.

Answer the following Questions:

1. Who was Medusa? Where did she live?
Medusa was a beautiful maiden. She lived in the city of Athens in a country named Greece.
2. What did Medusa brag about? How?
Medusa bragged about her skin which she felt was more beautiful than fresh fallen snow. She said that on Monday her hair glowed brighter than the sun. On Tuesday her eyes were greener than the Aegria Sea. On Wednesday her lips were redder than the reddest rose.
3. How vain was Medusa?
Medusa was vain and foolish as she had made Athena Goddess angry and she changed her face into monster with hair twisted like snakes.
4. Where did she go with her friends? What rash remarks did she make?
She went with her friends to Parthemon the largest temple of the Goddess Athens in all the land. Medusa's rash remark was that she much prettier than Goddess Athens people leave wasted their time on making the statue of Goddess Athena.
5. How did Athena appear to Medusa?

When all people in the temple had left and Medusa was still busy watching her own reflection on the bronze door she saw Athena's reflection instead of hers.

6. What did Athena tell Medusa about beauty?
Athena told Medusa that "Beauty fades swiftly in all mortals. It does not comfort the sick, teach the unskilled or feed the hungry".
7. What did Medusa turn into? What was Athena's curse?
Medusa turned into a hideous monster. Her hair twisted and thickened into horrible snakes that hissed and fought each other on top her head. Athena's curse was that a mere sight of her would turn a man to stone and if Medusa seek her reflection she too would turn into a rock.

Tick the correct Answer:

1. Each day, Medusa's boast became more- (b) outrageous.
2. She admired herself in her hand mirror for an hour each morning as she- (c) brushed her hair.
3. The Parthenon was the largest temple of – (c) the goddess Athena.
4. Medusa considered herself- (a) prettier than Athena
5. Beauty fades swiftly in –(a) all mortals
6. Medusa's hair twisted and thickened into- (c) horrible snake.
7. Medusa was sent to live with-(b) the gorgon sisters.

Choose the correct reflective pronoun and fill up the blanks:

1. I made this painting myself.
  2. He did the homework himself.
  3. We helped ourselves to some pizza at the party.
  4. Suzanne did you go to the market by yourself.
  5. Monica made this dress herself.
  6. She hurt herself while playing basketball.
  7. Shane and Mark admitted themselves to be at fault.
  8. He can take care of himself
  9. The puppy barked when it saw itself in the mirror.
  10. Jocy and Sam enjoy themselves at the party.
-